FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Site Recognizes Chapter Excellence During Honors Gala

CHICAGO — During the Site International Conference in Cape Town, South Africa, Site Southeast USA was presented with the 2010 Site Chapter of the Year Award after being first runner up in the 2009 competition. Members include over seven states: Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Although the chapter is only two years old, it epitomizes what Site values most: global connections, motivational experiences and business results. The Southeast Chapter is helping their members to grow and succeed...personally and professionally. They produce relevant and meaningful networking and learning experiences and adopted a very worthwhile charitable cause with Wine to Water, whose founder and CNN Hero Doc Hendley was the Site International Conference closing keynote speaker. Site is proud to recognize them as the 2010 Site Chapter of the Year.

Also recognized, four chapters received excellence awards for their achievements in 2010. Chapters submitted applications outlining the merits of their programs, and the Site Chapter Project Experts selected award winners in the categories of Education, Special Events, Membership, Wild Card and Chapter of the Year. Chapter excellence award winners were:

- Education — Site Ireland
- Membership — Site Canada
- Special Event — Site Texas
- Wild Card — Site Italy

Thank you to EIBTM who has displayed dedication to our Chapters over the past year and serves as our partner for the Chapter of the Year recognition program.
